Winter in Gastein

Each of the 4 ski areas in Gastein Valley is well worth a visit and just a few minutes away either by car or ski bus. Sportgastein, the highest glacier free ski area in Salzburger Land, is regarded as THE freeride hotspot in the Alps. Of course, you don't have to be a skier to enjoy winter in Gastein. Just pull on some warm clothes, then head out into the crystal-clear air. Set off on a tobogganing expedition or go ice skating with your whole family. And as you take a stroll along the Kaiser-Wilhelm-Promenade in Bad Gastein, you will likely be accompanied by curious squirrels. Let's hope you tucked a few nuts into your pocket just in case!

The REGINA Hotel | Café | Bar | Restaurant
For twelve years, the creators Olaf Krohne & Jason Houzer have been successfully running the REGINA Hotel, a building from the beginning of the last century, which has been transported into the modern era with feeling and style. More stubborn than its neighbors, Contemporary next to design classics, Grandezza next to New Objectivity. "Here, skiing vacations suddenly become cosmopolitan and metropolitan," writes a major German daily newspaper about the REGINA Hotel. Condé Nast Traveler, Vogue, GQ & Monocle also write about it. The magazine "Geo Saison" has again chosen the REGINA as one of the ten most beautiful hotels in the Alps.

Located in the centre of Bad Gastein, with a magnificent view, urban chic, cinema, library, fireside lounge as well as a small but fine spa. The café & bar invite you to linger. In the à la carte restaurant of the REGINA, international cuisine meets regional products every evening, refined and unpretentious at the same time. A hotel like there is probably no other in the mountains.
